The Connecticut State Y. M. C. A. convention will be held at Danbury February 22-24.

The O. K. social club will give its first annual ball at old Union armory February 28.

Bishop Cyrus Foss will deliver the dedicatory sermon at the dedication of Derby's new Methodist church next Tuesday.

Mr. E. A. Parsons has resigned his position as organist of the church of the "Divine Paternity" of New York city after a continuous service of five years.

The services at the First Congregational church, Waterbury, Sunday morning, were appropriate to the thirtieth anniversary of the Rev. Dr. Joseph Anderson's pastorate of that church.

John Donovan, who resides on Grand avenue, fell on the sidewalk on State street, near Wooster, shortly before 12 o'clock last night and broke his left leg. The police ambulance was summoned, and he was taken to the hospital.

Miss Frances E. Willard has telegraphed Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker of Hartford, saying that she and Lady Henry Somerset will speak at the hearing before the woman suffrage committee to-morrow at 11 a. m. in the house of representatives.

S. J. Bestor, aged sixty-three, the Hartford real estate dealer, who died Sunday of Bright's disease, was known to many in this city, with whom he had done business. He leaves a wife and three children-one daughter, Mrs. Colin H. Barbour, and two sons, Howard G. and Robert L. Bestor.

The Young People's guild of the Grace Episcopal church of Fair Haven are preparing an entertainment to be given the 23d of February. The leading characters will be taken by leading well known artists, among them Miss Grace Bradnock, Miss Edith Barr, Miss Dotti Mullien and Mr. R. Stanley Gates.

FESTIVITIES IN MANY HALLS.

Hessen-Verein Masquerade Last Night.
The grand "Masken Kranzchen" of the New Haven Hessen Verein at Harugard hall, was largely attended by many friends of the society. A jolly grotesque crowd they made. The grand march was led by Mr. Fred Voelker and wife. Following him was a most amusing procession. The entertainment was a grand success. About 125 couples were in the grand march. Music was by the Philharmonic orchestra and prompting by Prof. Cappulo.

NEW HAVEN TURN VEREIN.

The grand masquerade ball of the New Haven Turn Verein at Turn Hall was a fine success. One hundred and fifty couples were in the grand march, making a grotesque and amusing parade. Music was furnished by the Philharmonic orchestra, Prof. Jaehnichen, prompter. The Verein will give a grand gymnastic exhibition at the Hypocrite Wednesday evening, February 27, 1895.

ANCHOR SOCIAL CLUB.

The "Anchor Social Club" gave its first annual ball at old U. on armory last evening. The grand march was led by John T. Tyrell and Miss Sadie McDonough, followed by 200 couples. Smith's orchestra furnished music for dancing, and Prof. McCabe prompted.

The club is composed of a jolly crowd of young men in the western part of the city. Its popularity was attested by the presence of the many young people at its first annual.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CLUB.

MEETING AT THE GRAND AVENUE CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

An Address by Rev. Dr. Clark of Boston, Formerly of New Haven-An Interesting Occasion.

The New Haven Congregational club met last evening at the Grand avenue Congregational church and the meeting was largely attended. Among those present were Rev. D. M. James, Rev. W. J. Mutch, Rev. Dr. Twitchell, Judge S. E. Baldwin, F. S. Bradley, Chandler French, Professor William E. Chandel, ex-Mayor Peck, William M. Parsons, George Curtis, Charles Richardson, W. L. Mix, and many ladies.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Dr. E. L. Clark, pastor of the Central Congregational church, Boston. He is a brother of President Clark of the Consolidated road and resembles that gentleman very much, except he is a trifle older looking. He possesses much of the geniality of the railroad man and is a very pleasant and genial gentleman. Previous to the supper Dr. Clark was introduced to many of the guests in the church parlors.

The supper was served at 6:30 in the church parlors, where fourteen long tables had been prepared and laden with an excellent spread, such as the ladies of the church know so well how to arrange. The tables looked very pretty decorated with banquet lamps and flowers.

The committee of arrangements consisted of Mrs. Walter Graham, Mrs. James Hull, Mrs. E. C. M. Hall, Mrs. Walter Bishop, Mrs. Lewis L. Bradley, Miss Hattie Denison, table committee, Mrs. L. F. Bradley, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Joseph Blinn, Mrs. Henry Stevens, Mrs. Hull, Mrs. F. H. Hemingway, Mrs. Eugene Rowe, Mrs. Grace Roberts, Miss Florence Bigelow, Miss Georgia Hardy, Mrs. J. H. Augur, Miss Nellie Fields, Miss Irene Wilson, Miss Mattie Fields, Mrs. John Hewitt, Miss May Denison, Miss Clara Ford, Miss Hattie Denison, Mrs. Prescott, Mrs. Jennie Tuttle, Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Charles Hubbard, Mrs. Elliott Bradley, Mrs. Wallace Hurlbut, Miss Gertrude Bradley, Miss Josephine Bradley, Mrs. Walter Bishop, Mrs. Albert Bishop, Miss Lucy Griswold, Mrs. Dr. Boyer, Miss Jennie Griswold, Mrs. James Johnston, Miss Louise Johnston and Mrs. Baldwin. The ladies were assisted at each table by several gentlemen.

After the supper a business meeting was held, at which Rev. D. M. James, chairman of the executive committee, presided in the absence of the president, Rev. Dr. W. L. Phillips. The following new members were elected: William L. Peck, Davenport church; Sherman F. Foote, United church; Rev. O. Raymond Howe, Westville Congregational church; Rollin S. Woodruff, Dwight Place church; Charles W. Scranton, Church of the Redeemer; F. H. Belden, Dwight Place church; Wells Campbell, Dwight Place church; George W. Peck, Dwight Place church; Warren S. Bellows, United church.

After the meeting Rev. Dr. Clark was introduced and made the address of the evening. His subject was: "The Best Method of Raising Church Revenue." He outlined several plans of bringing the church up to the standard of giving liberally for general expenses. The subject was afterwards discussed by several members present. The choir, with Professor George Robinson as organist, sang "My Love Is Like a Red, Red Rose," "Sweet and Low" by Barnby, and "Good Night Beloved."

Judge Long's Case Referred.

Washington, Feb. 11.-Commissioner Lochren has referred the decision of Judge Bradley of the district court, in the case of Judge Long, to the attorney general of the United States. Judge Long secured a writ of mandamus to compel the commissioner of pensions to pay him his pension of $75 per month, which Commissioner Lochren had reduced. The attorney general will review the papers and probably appeal the case to the court of appeals of the district.

Collapsed by Earthquakes.

Rome, Feb. 11.-Severe shocks of earthquake were felt in Reggio di Calabria. Several houses collapsed in the village of Santanna. A serious riot occurred in the village of Acerra today, growing out of the resistance to the collection of the grain tax. The troops were called, and in the collision a number were wounded on both sides.

Syndicate Deposits Gold.

New York, Feb. 11.-The Belmont bond syndicate began the deposit of gold today, $500,000 being deposited by the Chase National bank in the United States assay office, and $1,000,000 from another bank supposed to be the Fourth National. The Washington authorities notified Assistant Treasurer Jordan that all gold deposited on account of the syndicate must be deposited at the assay office and accepted as bullion. The government will credit the syndicate for only the actual weight of gold in the gold coin accepted. It was decided by the Washington authorities that certificates of deposit could be issued on receipt of the gold, which should bear the same interest as the bonds issued.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Twenty Candidates for the Athletic Team in Training-Club Disbanded.

About twenty candidates for the athletic team are in training at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

The much talked about debating club, the "Literary Society," has disbanded. It was impossible to get a hall suitable for their debate outside the school building.

Another organization, the Hillhouse Glee club, has fallen through, owing to their inability to hire a hall outside the school. The club contained seventeen members and was in a prosperous condition during the season. Having no surplus in the treasury with which to rent a hall it was voted to disband. Mr. Zimmerman, the president and leader, made a few remarks, stating that he should like to see the club continue, but it would be impossible for him to interest himself in it further, as his time was very much occupied. After having no one to lead them they were thought best to disband and they accordingly did so.

STATE STREET BLAZE.

Business Places Badly Damaged-Building Formerly Owned by John Jacob Astor-Loss Partly Covered by Insurance.

The ancient two-story wooden building at 355 State street, occupied by Schwicker's saloon, Judd's and Landrigan's restaurants, was the scene yesterday of a rather hot fire.

The fire started from a gasoline stove in the rear of Judd's restaurant, and the room being filled with inflammable material the blaze spread rapidly, and the place was soon filled with fire and smoke. The fire department responded promptly, streams were directed on the flames and the blaze was soon under control. All the inmates quickly left the building except a woman, Mary Allen, who was trying to save her few possessions, and struggled with the officers who were trying to get her out as she wished to save her pocketbook. Before she and the two officers got down the narrow stairway they were nearly suffocated with smoke. Mrs. Schwicker's loss was about $1,000, with no insurance.

The loss in Judd's and Landrigan's restaurants was about $1,000 in each, with small insurances. Part of the uniforms of Landrigan's band were in the place, together with some instruments, which were all destroyed or ruined. This building is half of a very ancient house, and is owned by Mrs. Louisa Beecher of Olive street. Over seventy years ago Mrs. Beecher's father, the Rev. John M. Garfield, purchased the place from John Jacob Astor. The building is valued at about $4,000, and is insured.

Miss Pardee's Play.

Miss Jean Pardee has changed the name of her play from "Lady Hargrave's Escape" to "Bobby Melville of London," and under that title it has been copyrighted. It is a clever comedy, with very good scenic effects and lines crisp and sparkling.

The first scene is laid in London, the home of Lord and Lady Hargrave. The second is at Maplewood lodge, the country seat of Baron Berg and his daughter, Miss Maudie Berg. This is one of the best scenes. The third act has the same setting, while the fourth and last shows the drawing room of Lord and Lady Hargrave at their London house. The whole play is thoroughly up to date and there are many clever hits on the fads of the present time. Miss Pardee takes the leading part, that of Lady Hargrave, who later appears as "Bobby Melville." Her support is a strong one. Miss Frances Ross, the younger daughter of Dr. Jose B. Ross, will take part, and will do a clever skit dance in the last act. The costumes are to be the latest mode, and the whole play will be presented in the best possible form. The date, while not yet definitely decided on, is soon after Easter. Rehearsals will be begun in a short time.

Will Liquidate Its Affairs.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 11.-The American Savings bank, doing business at 116 and 118 Griswold street, this city, has decided to liquidate its affairs and retire from the field. The bank has a capital of $300,000 and was organized in 1887.

To the Great Chancellor.

Berlin, Feb. 11.-The National Zeitung says the emperor has decided to have placed upon the Bismarck tower, which is in course of erection at Goettingen, the inscription: "To the Great Chancellor; by Kaiser Wilhelm II, 1895."

Daughters of the Revolution.

The Daughters of the Revolution will hold a meeting at Hon. N. D. Sperry's house to-morrow. An address will be delivered by Mrs. George F. Newcomb on Revolutionary songs and music.

At Virginia Beach.

Rev. M. A. Munson of Exchange street, having spent a week at the Hygeia hotel, Old Point Comfort, is now at the Princess Anne, Virginia Beach.

A BATTLE FOR SUPREMACY.

Between St. Aloysius and St. John's Clubs.
The second pool tournament of the series between the St. Aloysius and St. John's clubs will take place at St. John's clubhouse on Ward street Thursday evening. The first game was won by the St. John's boys by a score of 178 to 134, and the defeated players are determined to leave no stone unturned to secure the second game.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head, accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should immediately resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief. fit3teditw

EXHIBITION OF NEEDLE-WORK

We wish to extend to all lovers of needlework a hearty invitation to attend our exhibition, which takes place this week.

We shall show a large line of entirely new work which we have been gathering for several months past, and a score of new ideas which we think will interest you.

This exhibition is mainly for the purpose of emphasizing more emphatically the fact that we are the leaders in this line.

You need not feel compelled to buy. We shall consider it a favor if you will but look, and extended room will afford better facilities.

Also kindly bear in mind that our work is not the so-called, but the genuine handwork.

As a contrast to the work of the present and the past we shall show work 50 years old.
